

2024 Southeast Region Cadet Leadership School

Operations Order

Activity Director: Shannon Brumfield, LtCol, CAP
Asst. Directors: Capt Michael Piwowarski & 1Lt Anna Vaughn

What: 2024 Southeast Region Cadet Leadership School (RCLS)

When: 22 March – 14 April 2024

Where: In-Person 22-24 Mar and 12-14 Apr at Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, AL & Virtual

Who: Cadets (C/MSgt – C/Maj)

Program Goal: To develop in cadets the Phase III leadership skills (indirect leadership) outlined in the Cadet Staff Handbook duty expectations (ref: CAPP 60-13).

Eligibility: Because RCLS addresses skills relating to indirect leadership and company-grade cadet officer topics, participating cadets need to be cadet officers or cadets on the cusp of officership. Therefore, students attending RCLS should have completed an encampment and hold the grade of C/MSgt or higher.

PLEASE NOTE: If the cadet applicant is a senior C/NCO, they must have a letter of recommendation from their squadron commander or designee as part of their participant application package.

Event Description:

SER/CP will be conducting a hybrid (in-person and virtual) RCLS beginning 22 Mar 2024 and ending 14 April 2024. The 22-24 Mar and 12-14 Apr dates will be in-person. The three weeks in between will consist of virtual sessions, and some online sessions.

This activity is a hybrid event. You must attend the in-person weekends and virtual sessions to receive credit for the course.

Special Notices:

1. There are still details that are being finalized. Please be on the lookout for emails with specific instructions for registration, payments, and any other activity specific information.
2. The location of this activity is scheduled to take place on a military installation. Due to the nature of real-world events, participation on a military installation can change as this Civil Air Patrol activity is considered a non-priority event. Although unlikely, it is possible that our facilities at the planned installation will become unavailable to us with short notice. The event staff will work towards providing an alternate location should such a scenario occur.
